SESSION SUMMARY

SG1J

SESSION: 12 FEB 88, 0900-1020HRS

9 → EQUALITY — There is a feeling of equality amongst these people. Everyone in this community has various tasks and responsibilities, but not one person or task is held in higher esteem or importance. All are equal. This idea or concept goes beyond just people and tasks. It's as if they believe that everything is just as important as anything else. For example, an ant deserves as much consideration as an elephant, because each one serves the important function of keeping the natural order of things in balance.

12/8/ → CHILDREN — These people feel that children are their most important asset. Children do not belong to the family unit, as much as they do to the community. It would be just as correct to address any adult male as "father" as it would one's paternal father, and vice-versa.

✓ 0/1 → BELIEFS — The people here are very religious and spiritual. However, their concept of God is very much different than ours. They perceive God as the great mystery, a force that governs all things in the universe. They believe that this ^{force} has awareness, a consciousness, something that could be described as the "life force". They seem to be very close to nature and believe that this conscious force can be found, even in rocks etc.
